

ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

Mara Fletcher is an American Artist and Gallery Directory living in Arvada, Colorado. She is originally from Ocala, Florida, and lived in New York City for 13 years where she was an actress, producer, published author, and singer/songwriter.

After receiving her BA in psychological from Hunter College, Mara moved to Colorado to pursue a career as an addiction recovery and life coach. Her days of creativity seemed to have come to a standstill, until she discovered her love of art in 2022, while visiting local galleries. She fell in love with curating pop-up art events on Santa Fe and opened The Art Social on May 15, 2023.

For Mara, painting is a natural extension of her creative being that has expressed itself in many forms over the years. Using a multi-disciplinary approach, Mara infuses her knowledge of positive psychology and poetry into her artwork as well as the exhibits she curates. She hopes the artwork she creates will open your heart to all the wonderful things in this life!
